

Piloting of Sanitation Safety Planning in Nepal

Status: Completed

Project Partner: DWSS, WHO, WaterAid Nepal

Project Area: Srikhandapur, Nala, Lubhu

Project Duration: October 2017 to March 2018

Aim:

To gain practical knowledge on piloting Sanitation Safety Planning in Nepal

Project Description:

This project is initiated by DWSS in collaboration with WHO, WaterAid Nepal and ENPHO as technical partners. It has been implemented in Srikhandapur Wastewater Treatment Plant, Nala Wastewater Treatment Plant and Lubhu Faecal Sludge Treatment plant.

Project Outputs:

- Prepared a report on piloting of sanitation safety planning in Nepal
- Conducted a short term improvement activities in sanitation systems

Major Achievements:

- Formed sanitation safety planning team in 3 sanitation systems (Srikhandapur, Nala and Lubhu)
- Prepared a documentary on Sanitation Safety Planning

Beneficiaries:

Total Beneficiaries from the Project

2,330 people

Srikhandapur: 1,000 people

Nala: 810 people

Lubhu: 520 people