

Training on Total Sanitation

27-29 Mangsir, 2080

Golbazar, Siraha

Why to join?

- Understand total sanitation and its components and indicators.
- WASH plan and policies.
- Discuss the sanitation system including proper use of latrine, management of fecal sludge and waste management.
- Acquire knowledge on water quality and choosing appropriate household water treatment option along with climate resilient water safety plan and its importance.

Target Participants

- WASH implementers, stakeholders,
- Field coordinators, community development, or health projects and looking for upgrade knowledge and understanding level,
- Motivated to work with households in developing countries to provide safe water, improved sanitation and proper hygiene.

Key content

- Intro to total sanitation
- WASH policy and plan
- Fecal sludge management
- Water quality and national drinking water quality standard-2079
- PoU options
- Climate resilient water safety plan

Supported by

Jointly Organized by

