

Factsheet of Faecal Sludge Management at Nepalgunj Sub-Metropolitan City

Nepalgunj Sub-Metropolitan City has a trench for temporary management of faecal sludge. It was established on 2023 A.D. The system was established with support from SNV Nepal in support of Directorate-General for International Cooperation (DGIS). It is currently being managed by Nepalgunj Sub-Metropolitan City.

This factsheet has been generated based on the survey conducted on 19 April 2024.

Components in Treatment Facility

The facility has trenching method only for faecal sludge treatment.

Design Capacity and Operational Status

Design Capacity: 544 cubic meter

Operational Status: Functional

Operated by: Nepalgunj Sub-Metropolitan City

We acknowledge representatives from Nepalgunj Sub-Metropolitan City and SNV Nepal for your cordial support during this survey.

