

Online Training on Chlorination of Drinking Water in Emergencies

A self-learning online course

26th May - 16th June 2026 | 2:30 - 3:30 PM

(3 zoom sessions (26th May, 2nd and 16th June 2026))

ABOUT THE COURSE

This course helps participants learn how to calculate the correct chlorine dose for drinking water in emergencies and understand the factors that affect chlorine effectiveness.

KEY CONTENT

How chlorine works and how to measure it.

Chlorine dosing in batches.

Shock treatments of tanks and wells.

TARGET PARTICIPANTS

- Water supply scheme technicians,
- WASH project implementers
- Officials interested to learn chlorination

“

Deadline

19 May 2026

APPLY NOW

More Information

shobha.rana@enpho.org

977-1-5244641, 5244051